Scene 1

Over logo

Vo (Willy)

I came back home to raise crows and God willing, get drunk.

Bottle shot

Bottle

So, you want to drink me then

Willy

Well, it's a bit rotten but all right.

Willy picks up bottle.

Willy

(Staring at bottle hungrily)

I love you. I always have. I want to drink you.

Scene 2

Landscape shots

(Vo)

His dreams were of ~~drinking~~ booze and the bottle he loved.

Show of Willy drinking bottle, then wider spinning and drinking.

One of the volunteers asks Willy,

Volunteer
Where you going?

Willy
I'm gonna pick a fight.

Volunteer
Well, I didn't get drunk for nothing.

Woman
I'm just the token female that's been put in the plan to give it a bit of balance. (Ste chomp)

Volunteer
We cannot defeat this army

Willy
We can! And we will.

He screams with exultation. His followers go, "yee" but without as much enthusiasm.

Willy (vo)
If we win...

Shouts of fighting.

Willy (vo)
... then we'll have what none of us have ever had before...

Scene 3

Willy, looking distraught

Willy

I want to go to the pub but it's all for nothing if you don't have alcohol.

Vo

This drinking word be written on a label
on the side of a bottle.

CAMERA PULLS AWAY TO REVEAL WILLY OUTSIDE PUB

The landlord of pub exits and says:

Landlord

As landlord of this pub I shall remove these games and call, "fine please!"

Landlord takes glass off table.

Willy probes landlord.

Willy

Go back to the brewery and tell them those
Red Scotlands drinks are yours no more.

Line of sad jockers.

(Vo)

He rates new volunteers in every Scottish town.

More shots & fighting Men cut to Wully putting bottle on table.

Wully

... A public house of our own.

Shot of Wully running through trees, happy with his bottle.

Wully

(talking to volunteers)

Would you be willing for one ~~good~~ chance, your one chance, to tell our enemies that they may take our ~~guns~~^{glasses}, but they'll not take our ~~atmosphere~~ whiskey.

He launches bottle in the air and it lands upright
beside BRAVELIVER
