

STAR TREK II... "But Captain..."

The starship Enterprise has just gone into hyperspace. It crashes into and through a moon...

Inside the Enterprise.

Kirk - "Kirk to engine room. Stop this ship."

The Enterprise breaks suddenly.

Spock - "It appears Captain, that the super-precision Vivax magnetic particles have combined with the super structure of the ship thus lifting the propulsion units into solid matter that is much greater than the Enterprise itself."

Kirk - "What are you trying to tell me Spock?"

Spock - "Well, what it basically means, Captain, is that we are currently flying through space, at approximately 20 times faster than the speed of light in a complete piece of shit."

Kirk - "Is that bad then?"

Spock - "Affirmative Captain"

Kirk - "Well, where's that little Commie Sulu? He's supposed to be navigating us back home."

Chekov - "I killed him in a wild frenzy by throwing him off the water container - little bastard, he asked for it Captain."

Kirk - "You're telling me that you cold bloodedly killed Sulu?"

Chekov - "Yes, ... I mean no...no. He saw this cute little kitten with a fluffy tail and big sad brown eyes meowing on a ledge, and being Sulu, he thought he could save that little feline. Unfortunatley his Rebok's were more worn than he realised and he slipped, landing in a sickening and crumpled mess at the bottom of the cliff."

Kirk - "And the cute little kitten with a fluffy tail and big sad brown eyes?"

Chekov - shaking his head - "I'm sorry Captain, he took it with him. Fortunatley I managed to take this Polaroid before it snuffed it."

They all gather to look at the photo, mourning the loss.

Uhara - "Captain, can I juts t..."

Kirk - "Uhara Please !!"

Uhara - "But Captain..."

Kirk - "No Buts Uhara!!"

Uhara - "But Captain there's Klingons moving into attack position from behind."

Kirk - "Uhara, leave the running of this ship to me in future. It's not every day a cute little kitten with a fluffy tail and sad brown eyes gets mutilated in a climbing accident. When I am trying to grieve this sad loss, will you please show a little respect for my feelings? ... Uhara, did you just say something about Klingons?"

Spock - "I believe she made such a statement Captain. Furthermore, I feel it advisable to add that according to my ZX81 Home Computer starter pack, that due to the unstable nature of this space vessel, the 100 or so Klingons currently in our environs will probably and quite logically make some form of attempt to kill us, thus rendering us dead, unless of course we ourselves establish a viable form of communicational system. ... That's now Captain, not tomorrow."

Kirk - "Don't patronize me Spock. Chekov, set up the communication link please."

Chekov presses a few buttons setting up the communication link. It comes on showing a passionate love session between Spock and the Captain.

Kirk - "Turn that off please. Sorry about that Spock, I thought that I had recorded "Beadle's About" over that."

Chekov - "You Bastard Spocky, you said that I was your only Gummy Bear."

Spock - "Chekky...Chekky...Chekky... You are, but it is Vulcan custom to have more than one sexual partner, and aboard a space vessel of this immense size one is almost inevitably going to sleep around a bit."

Chekov changes channels, and a Klingon appears on the screen.

Klingon - "Captain James. T. Kirk, What a pleasure it is to meet, surely one of the worst and indeed, ugliest space travellers of our time."

Kirk - "What do you want Vader?"

Klingon looks puzzled.

Kirk - "It is Lord Darth Vader I presume... Oh no, I know now, you're that... Blake guy, right?"

Klingon - "WRONG!!!"

Kirk - "Well what sort of deformed and generally hideous creature are you?"

Spock - I do believe Captain, that he is pertaining to the Klingon spectra, and furthermore I would most urgently and in as stronger words possible, advise you to duck."

Kirk - "Crew,...Did any of you understand one syllable of what this weird and supposedly intelligent Vulcan, said?"

Chekov - "I got drips and drabs Captain."

Kirk presses for Scottie.

Kirk - "Did you get thaty Scottie?"

Scottie - "Ay, Captain, I got it alright, and it'll be a sunny day in Glasgow before I understand what the hell he said."

Kirk - "What did he say Uhara?"

Uhara - "Captain, Duck!"

Kirk - "Don't give me orders and try to embarrass me in front of the crew. If I've told you once....."

Explosion behind him.

Uhara - "That's what he trying to tell you Captain - DUCK!"

Klingon - "Insult me again Kirk, and I'll have you hung up by your balls."

Kirk - "Well I'm afraid you will find that difficult as my testicles were both severed in an agricultural accident at the age of 5."

Spock - "You never told me Kirk..."

Kirk - "Don't worry Spock, my love-cherries are fully in tact and in perfect working order, that was just a devious ploy."

Klingon - "Stop whispering Captain. I must ask you to beam me aboard before I blow your ship up."

Kirk - "What are your feelings about this Spock?"

Spock - "As a Vulcun, you should know I do not have any feelings. Dying is not a great concern of mine."

Kirk - "Well thankyou, Mr. Bloody-Useless Spock. You might as well live in Albania."

Spock - "On the surface it is an interesting presumption Captain, but I can safely predict, that any subsequent relocations on my part would not necessitate any form of settlement in the aforementioned country..."

Kirk - "Spock, shut up."

The group huddle together and confer.

Kirk - "O.K, Klingon you've got 24 seconds to get your butt over on the landing pod for energisation."

Klingon - "Thankyou for your considerate and warm attitude Kirk"

Kirk - "O.K Spock, go and get that jerk up onto the bridge."

Spock - "Certainly Captain. That's logical" - mutters to himself about the most logical route to take.

Fade out and In again - Time elapses.

Kirk - frustrated and restless, hits the arm of his chair, causing a Photon torpedo to be launched. Planet explodes.

Uhara - "Nice shooting Captain, you just blew up Jupiter."

Spock and Klingon appear in lift

Spock - boring Klingon with technical explanations...

Klingon - "Who sent this freak to collect me ? Oh well at least your set has improved."

Chekov recognises Klingon

Chekov - "Oh my God, it's that Klingon that me and Sulu stole information from about where the drugs are hidden."

Klingon - "Kirk, my old friend, I have a small request for you."

Kirk - "What do you want Klingon ?"

Klingon - "Well, you know those little keyrings that you can whistle at and they bleep back, I could do with one of those, but I came on board to tell you to turn this ship around, and head back towards Goofy."

Kirk - "Are you out of your mind ?"

Klingon - "Yes but I am seeing a psychologist."

Kirk - "But why all the way back to Goofy ?"

Klingon - "Drugs Captain, drugs."

Kirk - "Why you slimey knuckleheaded good for nothing baggy eyed piece of Klingon garbage..."

Klingon - "Enough Captain. Before you criticise myself, you should look at your own crew. Take Sulu for example..."

Kirk - "Leave him out of this. That man died during a valiant attempt to save the life of a cute little kitten with a fluffy tail and big sad brown eyes."

Klingon - "Sulu's not dead Captain and that kitten was mine."

Kirk - "What the hell are you talking about Klingon?"

Klingon - "In the cat's collare was vital information to the whereabouts of 50 Kg of hard drugs. Sulu and an anonymous accomplice, also from your ship, stole my little kitten and hid it on the planet Goofy. They weren't interested in your precious Ouffle to save your life, they were more interested in what we call drug running."

Kirk - "If what your telling me is true, that means Sulu's accomplice can only be one of two people, Spock or Chekov,and where the hell is Chekov."

Spock - "I do beleive I saw his physical form rapidly departing from the bridge approximately 3 minutes and 24 seconds ago, towards the door marked quick escape route."

Klingon - "Do you see what I mean Kirk?"

Kirk - "Spock, get me Chekov, now. And if you do come back without his 'physical form', I will personally ensure that your 'physical form' will be totally unrecognisable and non-operational by the time I have pommelled your goddam Vulcan face into this floor."

Spock - "Captain, I can appreciate your undoubted level of stress at the present time, but I feel it is neccesary to add that if you realise any of your threats, I must warn you that I will feel obliged to Vulcan grip you so goddam hard your upper limb will be so gruesomely severed from your neck that not even Bones will be able to re-attach it to your torso."

Spock exit.

Chekov located in a quieter corner of the Enterprise. Contacting Sulu.

Chekov - "Chekov to Sulu, are you receiving me, over."

Klingon HOW FAR ARE WE!! TO GOOFY

Kirk: WE'RE STUCK IN A JAM AT THE MOMENT.
Klingon: ON SCREEN!!! (STAR TOURS RIDE)!!!

Enterprise arrives at the planet goofy.

Inside the Enterprise.

Spock-"I do apologise for striking you so hard captain, but you may recall that I warned you of my potential reaction to being threatened. I would say I'm sorry captain but as a vulcan I cannot for as you know I have no feelings."

Kirk-"Mr Spock get your steaming vulcan form off my bridge!!"

Spock-"Captain, further provocation will result in a serious injury or fatality. I suggest that we maintain an amicable professional relationship. Furthermore I feel it is advisable that we both see Dr McCoy, to clear up our respective injuries."

Klingon-"Will you two shut up!! Thank god I can at last leave this weird party and soon the drugs will be mine."

Exit Klingon.

Kirk-"As soon as the klingon is energised down, turn this ship around and get us the hell out of here!"

Spock-"Wait captain, I think I can solve all our problems at once. You know you have always wanted that promotion to the job of supreme intelligence commander, well tomorrow is the last day for the recovery of galactical narcotics. with this haul I believe that this promotion could be yours. Kirk we have 24 hours to recover the drugs."

Kirk-"nice work Spock, lets go!!"

Meanwhile on Goofy, Sulu and Chekov are escaping.

Sulu-"Keep up with me Chek my freind"

Chekov-"Thats easy for you to say, you do not have to carry these cases you lazy chinese twerp!!"

Sulu-"Here, try some its good stuff!!"

they both sit down for a while and get fixed.

Klingon appears on planet.. Moves off, pursuing drug runners. Spock and Kirk appear 20 feet behind the Klingon, disguised as rocks.

Kirk -"This is a pathetic disguise Spock, where the hell did you get them from?"

NEED ROCKS DONE

Spock - "Under the circumstances, Captain, I feel you would be best advised to remain silent and enhance the camouflage illusion, otherwise I might do something rather rash."

Kirk - "Keep your Vulcan mouth firmly shut, and come on. We must follow that Klingon if we are to find Sulu and Chekov, and those drugs."

Kirk moves off, and Spock nearly succeeds in doing a Vulcan grip.

Sulu and Chekov behaving in drug induced state.

Klingon jumps into shot in front of them, and threatens them with a phaser.

Sulu and Chekov look at each other and then run for cover. - Tremendous chase sequence takes place - See storyboard.

Sulu explodes.

Chekov knocked out by Vulcan grip.

Klingon killed

Spock under a pile of rubble perfectly O.k

Kirk wounded and cut.

Kirk - "Spock... Spock!... Are you O.k.?"

Spock - "Perfectly, Captain. I was merely hibernating during the process of the physical confrontation. I do not believe in violence, I generally utilize other methods of obtaining that which I desire."

Kirk - "I had my butt on the line out there, whilst you were snivelling and hiding somewhere. I could have been killed out there."

Spock - "Could have been Captain, but you were'nt. I feel such retrospective thinking a most useless human emotion."

Kirk - "Spock collect the drugs, and we'll take them to the federation."

Spock - "Affirmative Captain, or should I say 'affirmative, 'super intelligence commander'?"

Kirk - "Nice on Spock (both laugh). Scottie, beam us up!"

Epilogue

Kirk - "Captain's log, stardate 2127. The Klingon is dead, so is Sulu at least he'd better be. We confined Chekov to a starfleet cell and he will be questioned once we reach the federation. The drugs will soon be handed over and I will be instated as Supreme intelligence Commander in a matter of weeks. Spock however will remain on the ship, as the new Captain of the starship Enterprise. Good luck to the crew that's what I say!"

Presses button to finish. Spock enters.

Kirk - "Ah Spock !, Nice to see you back on the bridge. Take us into warp speed now."

End.

Titles

Drug warning

Kirk - "Remember kids, drugs are no fun. Drugs endanger the life and happiness of millions. It must stop. We appeal in particular to the youth of today. Stop the madness. There are better things in life. Right Spock ?"

Spock - "Affirmative Captain."

STAR TREK II

Sulu and Chekov run down the trench closely followed by the Klingon. Spock and the Captain split up, Chekov and Sulu climb up large bank and run through reeds like Crockett and Tubbs from Miami Vice. Then they split up!! Klingon sees the two pairs of footprints lead off in different directions. He follows Sulu's.

Spock sees Sulu and approaches him calmly.

Spock: Sulu it is I Mr Spock!!! It has crossed my mind that you do not know the real danger that you are in at the present time. I therefore advise you to lay down your weapons and surrender. the drugs.

Sulu: you think I do not know what is going on around me!! I know all right but I am not surrendering now. After all this!! I've already lost my cocktail bar, the only thing I have left is the drugs.

Spock: Then I will be forced to take violent action against you which was not my intention.

Sulu: Take this action you pointed eared puffy Vulcan faced Kirk lover boy.

Sulu punches Spock, he slips and pulls on Sulu for balance and they both fall off the steep bank they hold on to vines to stop them falling. Sulu kicks Spock in the face trying to kick him off to get rid of him. The Klingon sees the suitcase lying on its own he suspiciously picks it up and hears struggling, Sulu is nearly up but the Klingon kicks him back down and runs off. Sulu struggles back up and runs off after the Klingon. Kirk finds Spock dangling, holding on for his life.

Kirk: Spock!! Spock!!! Oh my God!!!!!!

Spock: Captain please control your emotions it does not make the situation any easier.

Kirk: Spock grab my hand!!!

Spock: If my memory serves me correct you are in fact approximately 1 stone point 2596 lighter than myself which makes a successful rescue almost impossible.

Kirk: shut up and hold tight Spock, your slipping.

Spock: Informative captain I am!! you may as well let go as you cannot sustain an adequate hold on me for much longer.

Kirk: but if I let you go you'll die!!

Spock: that is a possibility captain.

Kirk: Spock!!!!!!

Spock: I believe gravity has got the better of me this time captain goodbye.

Spock falls and is covered in rubble and dirt.

Kirk: nooooooooo!!!!

Chekov: Sulu is that you??

Kirk fires at Chekov just missing him.

Kirk: not another step Chekov.

Chekov: I'm lucky your such a good shot captain, you could have hit me.

Kirk: move any closer and I will

Chekov: captain we've been friends a long time you would not shoot me?

Kirk: I'm warning you!!

Chekov: I'm afraid I know you too well captain. think about it, you don't need these drugs enough to kill someone do you???

Kirk thinks for a moment then blows him away.

Kirk: yes I do (blows down the barrel) Russians they think they know everything.

Sulu is following the Klingon. Klingon sees Kirk with the other suitcase the klingon takes aim but is distracted by sulu who stands in his takwondo stance sulu kicks the phasor out of the klingons hand and they get into a fight.

Klingon: ok ok take the drugs i give up! and heres a little somthing extra for being a good sport.

the klingon gives him a grenade!!!!

Sulu: oh thank you most generous.

Kirk: Sulu drop it its a grenade!!!!

Sulu: Aghhhhhh

sulu throws it in the air it lands into kirk's hand he panics and throws it at the klingon he puts super glue onto it and throws it back to sulu. sulu can not get it o

Kirk: DROP ITTT!!!!

sulu gives up

Sulu: oh shit.

sulu explodes*!

sulus severed head - klingon bastard.

Kirk: ok klingon its all over surrender!!

klingon: not yet

klingon disappears.

Kirk: what the hell!!!

klingon reappears.

next to his gun

Klingon: Clever isnt it, its my new portable energiser from SONY.

klingon picks up the gun and fires at kirk. Then he runs for cover into a small shack

Kirk: SURRENDER KLINGON!!!

Klingon: NEVER!!

Kirk: im going to count to three then im coming in &

Klingon: when you say three is that on the three or 1 "2 "3 then go in.

Kirk its one two ...look does it really matter?

Klingon: no not really, just trying to buy some time.

Kirk OK this is it 1..... 2... 3....

Kirk moves in Rambo music is heard.

Klingon: Bye bye kirk my friend

klingon throws out grenades at kirk kirk dives over and dodges the explosions, he does a cool double roll and then dives over an iron sheet for cover. there is a giant explosion behind the sheet and kirk comes out covered in soot.

kirk recovers and jumps onto the barrel then onto the roof of the cabin.

klingon hears kirk on top and craps himself. then kirk jumps off into a roll and blows the klingon away as he tries to run out. he hits him three times. the klingon does a over the top death scene.

klingon: kirk i swear you will not live to tell. i curse you to die!!!!

kirk: excuse me????

Klingon: DIE!!

Kirk: no no 999 please after you!

klingon dies

you know klingons, they may smell like a 4 week old skid mark on your underpants, but they are extremely polite!! speaking of polite people my god Spock!!!!!!
